SEVERN VALLEY RAILWAY & *Murder by Appointment
SATURDAY 14 APRIL 2018

It is Saturday 14 April 1948 and the famous opera singers, Lothario Izagrotty and Dame Kiwi te Kanabeanz are boarding the 7.30 Kidderminster to Bridgnorth express enroute to perform at Dudmaston Hall, near Bridgnorth for a sellout audience.

Unfortunately, not everyone on the train that evening is an opera aficionado and there are those with a vested interest in ensuring the performance does not take place. But what possible motive could anyone have for seeking to prevent it? And, even if there were such reason, could you believe that anyone would be prepared to stoop to a foul murder to ensure the performance could not take place?

But a foul murder there will be! It is fortunate indeed then that Detective Inspector Alfred Crowther is, by coincidence, boarding the train at Bridgnorth on his journey home to Arley, after a long and tedious 10 hour shift at Bridgnorth Police Station. Off duty he may be, but in the finest traditions of the Police force, it is incumbent upon him, as the only policeman present, to conduct an investigation into this gruesome crime and, you may be sure, he will swiftly unmask the evil perpetrator! But he will need your help!

So join us and dine in fine style as the train weaves its way along the beautiful Severn Valley and you watch as the murder unfolds before your eyes. We look forward to welcoming you.

Please note that, whilst we endeavour to provide the advertised murder mystery, it is, on rare occasions, necessary to change the scenario for reasons beyond our control.
