

SEVERN VALLEY RAILWAY & Murder by Appointment
jointly present

"Shaken & Stirred!"

SATURDAY 14 OCTOBER 2017

It is 14th October 1931. Passengers are boarding the 7-30pm express from Kidderminster to Shrewsbury. Amongst their number is an extremely wealthy middle-aged Arab Sheikh of Saudi Arabian nationality. Business and sporting interests (horse racing) frequently bring him to England and he is travelling this evening en-route to Ludlow Racecourse to watch one of his horses, Sheikh's Delight, run. Whilst in England, he enjoys all that the country has to offer and what is not freely available in Saudi Arabia - in particular, fine Champagne and beautiful and fair skinned ladies! His travelling companion this evening, a Miss Cilla Conbust, a lady of dubious reputation, does not prevent his eye falling upon other desirable young ladies. Whilst the respectable elements of British society might not condone such behaviour, they are hardly likely to expect his wandering eye to result in murder!

It is fortunate then that a Detective Inspector Alfred Crowther should be boarding the train at Brignorth after a long and tedious day at Brignorth Police Station, on his way home to Arley. Unfortunately for him is the fact that a policeman is never truly off duty and, confronted with a murder, he has no alternative to taking charge and commencing an investigation. You may rest assured that the Inspector will leave no stone unturned as he questions the suspects which will eventually lead him to the apprehension of the perpetrator of this heinous crime.

So join us and dine in fine style as we travel along the picturesque Severn valley aboard an authentic steam train of the period. Enjoy the camaraderie and banter with your fellow passengers as a foul and brutal murder takes place before your very eyes and you are invited to assist Inspector Crowther bring the guilty to justice. Please feel free to dress in period costume should you wish, to make your personal experience even more authentic. We look forward to welcoming you.
