"A Christmas Carol!"

Saturday 2 December 2017

It is Saturday 2 December 1945 and after years of the hardships and horrors of war, the population can finally enjoy a traditional Christmas. Thus, when a small band of carol singers board the 7.30pm Kidderminster to Bridgnorth express to entertain the passengers, everyone seems happy to see them and to join in with their seasonal music. But there are those on the train whose hearts are not warmed by the festive season. Those who harbour dark secrets which, quite inexplicably, will end in tragedy. The tragedy of a foul and brutal murder!

It is fortunate then that a Detective Inspector Alfred Crowther should be boarding the train at Brignorth after a long and tedious day at Brignorth Police Station, on his way home to Arley. Unfortunately for him is the fact that a policeman is never truly off duty and, confronted with a murder, he has no alternative to taking charge and commencing an investigation. You may rest assured that the Inspector will leave no stone unturned as he questions the suspects which will eventually lead him to the apprehension of the perpetrator of this heinous crime.

So join us and dine in fine style as we travel along the picturesque Severn valley aboard an authentic steam train of the period. Enjoy the camaraderie and banter with your fellow passengers as a foul and brutal murder takes place before your very eyes and you are invited to assist Inspector Crowther bring the guilty to justice. Please feel free to dress in period costume should you wish, to make your personal experience even more authentic. We look forward to welcoming you.
